

PHOTOJOURNALISM TEAM

Do you have a keen eye for photography? Do you spend more time on Instagram than you would like to admit? If you're 18 years of age or older and have your own camera, join our Photojournalism Team and capture epic festival moments, fantastic fans, and—most importantly—our great volunteers.

The volunteer Photojournalism Team is responsible for annually documenting the RBC Bluesfest volunteer story. Covering the entire festival grounds and all volunteer areas, members of this team will use their eagle-eyes to scope out people and activities that will find their place in the festival's digital archives.

Duties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • photograph volunteers in each area of the festival • directly engage volunteers & patrons • capture the excitement and fun that is RBC Bluesfest! • document additional elements of the festival, as required 	Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • must be 18 years of age or over • Accessibility Standards Customer Service Training • this position requires individuals to be flexible & energetic • must work efficiently as part of a team, with little or no direct supervision • previous photography experience • willing to walk for extended periods
Skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • proven photography skills • know when/how to be discreet & tactful • effective communication skills • strong customer service skills • exceptional attention to detail • excellent interpersonal skills • comfortable speaking with general public and asking them questions 	Assets: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • bilingualism • video capture and editing

- members of the Photojournalism Team DO NOT receive access to photograph performers
- volunteers are required to use their own camera equipment & photo editing software

 This is a wheelchair-accessible position.

 This is a privately recruited team.

 Room to grow - Mentor positions are available on this team.